STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) The defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon release from custody, the offender shall report to, and participate in the Delancey Street Program. The offender shall complete the program and provide proof of completion to the U.S. Probation Office. If the offender is not accepted into the Delancey Street Program, he shall report to the nearest U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours of release. If the offender is accepted into the Delancey Street Program but does not complete the program, he shall report to the nearest U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours of his discharge from that program. After completion of the Delancey Street program the offender's supervision will be terminated. If the offender is not accepted or does not complete the Delancey Street Program, the following conditions will apply:

Prior Conditions

1. The offender shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for (drug) (alcohol) abuse, which may include residential treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the offender is released from treatment by the probation officer. The offender is to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the total cost of urinalysis and counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.
2. The offender shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or any property under his control to a search. Such a search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the offender shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
3. The offender shall not own or possess any firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons.
4. The offender shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

Additional Conditions

5. The offender shall reside for a period of three (3) months, in residential reentry center and shall observe the rules of that facility.
6. The offender shall abstain from the use of all alcoholic beverages.
7. The offender shall participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. The offender is to pay part or all cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.
8. Unless directed in writing otherwise, the offender shall check (his) (her) voice mail and/or answering machine on a daily basis to determine if any instructions were left by the probation officer. The offender shall follow all such instructions, including but not limited to drug testing.

The Defendant must pay the total criminal monetary penalties as originally imposed, less any payments already received:
